President's Message

HALLELUJAH!! We now have a new Raffle Quilt chairman! Isn't that great? Thank you so much for stepping up MAY HARLESS. We will appreciate you and help you this coming year.

We also have a new Treasurer, Suzanne Rogers who will serve the rest of this year but will continue next year. Thank You, Suzanne.

We will need to fill Hospitality position, so if you are interested in taking this please let Julie Beck know. It is hoped that someone will volunteer before the end of the year so that we can have the information in the Membership Book. We also need an auditor who will audit the books come December. Any takes please, again, contact Julie Beck.

Well, that was some program we had. It was fun participating and working on a sample. The women all seems to enjoy what they were doing so much. A very happy meeting and very helpful if you want to color. I went to the class on Saturday and enjoyed it very much. Learned some things and looking forward to making a "crayon color" quilt.

SWEET SIXTEEN!

SEPTEMBER MARKS THE 16TH
ANNIVERSARY OF THE VERY FIRST MEETING OF THE IRVING QUILT GUILD!

Minutes from the August 2014 Meeting

Meeting was called to order by Barbara Martin at 7:00 p.m.

Cynthia Gladden reported that Margaret Schorn had passed. Sonya Bilbrey felt well enough to attend the meeting.

Cynthia welcomed 5 guests.

Suzanne was nominated and elected to the position of treasurer to finish 2014 since Sonya Bilbrey wasn't able to finish her term.

Gail Walsh reported that a lot of people had not turned in money for the raffle tickets. She had asked for volunteers to sit with the quilt and no one has volunteered to go with the quilt to different guilds to sell tickets.

Susan Turk and Janie Merritt handed out ballot's to vote on having a quilt show. We had 14 yes, 28 don't care, and 20 no. We will revisit this matter in January 2015 and only have yes or no on the ballot.

Sue Gray was taking money for the retreat.

Sue Gray is handling the President's quilt; call her with any questions about the block.

Tana Mueller was our speaker. The lecture was "Let's Color". The workshop for Saturday is Native Texas Star. Tana has also been booked for May 2015.

September's workshop will be "Making Pillowcases" with Bonnie Sloan.

The slate of nominated officers for 2015:

President: Barbara Martin
1st VP: Lori Vauble
2nd VP: Sue Gray
Treasurer: Suzanne Rogers
Secretary: Linda Scott

The Bear Creek guild sold tickets for their raffle quilt at the meeting

Fat Quarter Lotto color for September is black and white.

Food for September is S thru Z.

Show and Tell, Door Prizes

Meeting adjourned at 9:08 p.m.

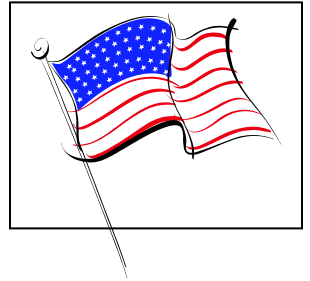

UFO Challenge

Be sure and bring your completed UFO'S to the September guild meeting. I am having a lot of fun with the UFO Challenge, I hope everyone participating is enjoying it as well.

Some of the challengers have already completed their six UFO'S.

We will have so much fun in December when the Queen and her court is announced. So keeping working on the UFO'S.

Quilts of Valor

Another Quilt of Valor Awarded

This holiday I spent Sunday in Weatherford at the family home of Garrett Hutson. Garrett's mother had contacted QOVF and requested a quilt for her son Garrett. He had been in Iraq as a Marine and was out of the service now. This was a complete surprise to him and was fun to pull off. She and Garrett's wife managed to keep it a secret and he thought he was just over at their house for a regular Sunday get together. Then I come cruising up and this complete stranger crashes their quiet afternoon. I told him I had gotten an e-mail about him and the look on his face was priceless. He thought he was in trouble about something. Eventually I got around to explaining what QOV is and how he was chosen to get one and that is what I was there to do. He was shocked and very appreciative. It was heartwarming to get a chance to deliver a quilt in person to such a humble man.

I will be going back to Weatherford on September 5th to the local VFW there. They have a steak night fundraiser every other week and there are 2 veterans that have been assigned quilts that are going to be there that night. One is a WWII vet and the other one is a Viet Nam vet. Once again this a total surprise for them. I will be talking to the diners about what QOV is about and then I will award them their quilts in front of everyone. The Viet Nam vet is actually the President of the VFW and he thinks I am just there to award one to Lee who is the WWII vet. He has no idea he is getting one also. This should be fun !!!

I am getting ready to mail off our first 2 quilts to Cynthia Chaffee for the Hospital commitment I made to the men's Traumatic Stress ward in Houston. I am counting on you guys again to keep as steady a flow of warrior quilts as possible coming in. I am working on mine and have 2 being quilted and one I need to put the binding on. That's all my news for now. I will let you know how the VFW night goes. I am sure it will be a fun night.

Next Compass Centre Retreat

Retreat for OCTOBER! The October retreat at Compass Center is Oct 9-12, 2014. I began taking money July 17th and will continue next month but retreat fees need to be paid in full no later than September 18th. At this time there are six spaces left. For anyone that hasn't paid by the September meeting, your bed will be available to the next person on the list.

At the next Guild Meeting, I will again have a list of rooms and everyone can sign up for the room they would like to have, with no guarantee if it is necessary to switch people around because we almost have a full house. So think carefully about who you want to room with and be sure everyone puts down a deposit to hold their place. Just like the March retreat, do not arrive before noon since they will be cleaning up after the last group.

The first two rooms on the left side of the building, as always, are reserved for anyone that requires handicap accessibility to the larger bathroom. It will be necessary for everyone to share and shuffle bathrooms, remembering that we are all friends and never in there at the same time. There are 5 bathrooms available and each bathroom should have no more than 7 people using it.

The rates are:

3 nights- $246.00	2 nights $164.00	1 night $ 82.00
--------------------	-------------------	------------------

Those that want to participate, bring a brown paper bag with a sewing related gift, $15. Carol will number them and everyone will draw a number on Saturday night to see which bag you get. I know everyone will have a good time even though I won't be there.

Programs & Workshops

Hi to all quilters!

I sincerely hope everyone had as much fun at the Let's Color class as I did. These ladies sincerely care that we know how to do their technique and take the time to give individual instruction. What more could anyone ask? Hope you all got at least one more thing to work on your technique with, I know I did. I'm glad we will be having them back again in May to learn their 'hot technique' which they say is even better than this one. This second class will be good incentive for me to get the first project done!

In September we will be having a pillow case workshop with Bonnie Sloan teaching. Her teaching fee will be one completed pillow case to turn in for a charity project. Anything else we choose to do in this class will be ours to keep. The measurements for fabric to bring for each pillow case are as follows: Body of pillow case is 27" x WOF, Cuff is 10" x WOF and Trim is 2" x WOF. If we bring fabric already precut Bonnie says we should be able to complete 3 pillow cases during the class. Class meets from 10 am to 2pm in the small room of Jaycee Park Building.

In October we have the garage sale during our regular guild meeting. Anyone with things to sell should set up their own table and make like a merchant. All sales proceeds go to the guild member. Hope lots of ladies bring lots of great things to sell because I just can't resist a sale. Our October workshop will be the final angel quilt workshop of the year. It will be held in the Jaycee Park large room so we have plenty of room for everyone to come and turn out lots of angel quilts. This is our last workshop of the year.

Happy quilting,
Julie Beck

Angel Quilts

This month we turned in 38 Angel Quilts to Scottish Rite. This brings the total of Angel Quilts donated to 171. Way to go!! Summer is on the way out but it's still so hot outside. The last thing you think of is wrapping yourself in a quilt. A quilt is a hug and no matter the temperature outside. Nothing makes you feel better when you're not feeling good than a hug. Barbara Martin received the 4 points from the Lite Red raffle.

Thank you.
